Memorable Events

Indochine Charm. Modern luxury.

WELCOME TO THE ANAM

The Anam is set on a long stretch of beach in Cam Ranh Bay, one of the world's most beautiful bays that offers guest the serenity and service of a bygone era.

The resort's design was inspired by Vietnam's Indochine era and the property's romantic appeal draws on this particular epoch. The imperial-style roofs, lanterns, big-bellied water vases, decorative pools, customized mosaic floor tiles and stone pathways all evoke a nostalgic tone yet feel completely contemporary.

Opened in April 2017, the luxurious resort boasts 77 villas, 40 premiums and 96 rooms and suites. It features an all-day dining restaurant The Indochine, a fine dining restaurant The Colonial, a Vietnamese cuisine Lang Viet restaurant, Saigon Bar and Beach Club, 10 spa treatment rooms, 3D movie theater, three capacious swimming pools, ballroom, conference rooms, recreation and fitness center, a tennis court, yoga room and kids' club.

The Indochine Restaurant

The Indochine Restaurant

Located near the open-air lobby, The Indochine is The Anam's gastronomic hub. Rich wood accents and luxurious fittings and fixtures set the mood in this multi-level dining space. Its terraces overlook one of the resort's three swimming pools and are bathed in welcome slivers of sunlight by day and in the glow of lanterns and candles by night.

An extensive buffet breakfast includes popular Western and Asian dishes, large spreads of pastries, bread and fruit, a live cooking station and freshly squeezed juices.

Saigon Bar

Saigon Bar

The Saigon Bar overlooks one of The Anam's three swimming pools. The bar features an outdoor terrace and a stylish interior hung with striking black and white photography by renowned Vietnamese photographer Mai Loc and his singular perspective on Vietnam's natural splendor and diverse culture.

The Saigon Bar has a small à la carte menu and offers afternoon tea, happy hour cocktail, and wine and champagne by a glass to a backdrop of a pianist and singer performing live Vietnamese, Frend and English music daily.

LOCATION

The resort is located on northern Cam Ranh Peninsula, just 20 minutes from Cam Ranh International Airport, and 30 minutes from Nha Trang city, one of Vietnam's iconic beach destinations. It is easily accessible by road, rail or air, just an hour by plane from Ho Chi Minh City and an hour and a half from the capital, Hanoi.

Cam Ranh boasts some of Vietnam's most idyllic weather, with over 300 sunny days a year and an average year round temperature of 26.7 degrees Celsius. The Anam's stunning setting and tropical weather support a host of water sports and other recreational activities.

Shaded by 3000 palm trees, The Anam's lush 12-hectare grounds overlook the white sands and turquoise waters of Long Beach. Traditional sampans and coracles still ply these waters and picturesque islands loom just offshore. A dramatic headland named 'Song Lo,' meaning the 'wave next to the mountain,' rises up to the immediate north and west, highlighting the setting's natural appeal.
